DRUG INVESTIGATION LEADS TO INDICTMENTS AND ARRESTS IN DARBY

PHILADELPHIA - Indictments¹ were unsealed today upon the arrests of ten individuals named in separate cases stemming from a long-term investigation into drug dealing in and around Darby Township, PA, that included the Third Street Boys Crack Cocaine Organization (“TSBCCO”), announced United States Attorney Zane David Memeger and Drug Enforcement Administration Special Agent-in-Charge John J. Bryfonski.

A fourth superseding indictment, in the case of U.S. v. Watters, et al, adds five defendants to the case that focuses on the TSBCCO. Stefan Fenwick, a/k/a “Fish”, Andre Roberts, a/k/a “Dre”, Deshawn Randolph, a/k/a “Cappy”, Russell Walker, a/k/a “Jock”, Allen Parker, a/k/a “Reese”, are charged in the original conspiracy to distribute cocaine. All five are also charged with distribution of cocaine; Fenwick and Roberts are additionally charged with distribution of marijuana. According to the indictment, the TSBCCO was a criminal gang that used violence and threats of violence to control its primary territory along North Third Street in Darby Borough.

The following separate indictments are components of the ongoing investigation and are not directly tied to the Third Street Boys Crack Cocaine Organization:

In a separate six count indictment, Louis Harris, Ebony Neal, and Abdul Abdul-Haqq were charged with various drug-related offenses. Harris and Neal were charged with conspiracy to distribute 50 grams or more of cocaine base (“crack”), distribution of 50 grams or more of crack, distribution of five grams or more of crack, and two counts of crack distribution within 1,000 feet of a public school; Abdul-Haqq was charged with distribution of 50 grams or more of crack.

In a separate four count indictment, Andre Woodard and Louis Harris were charged with distribution of cocaine base (“crack”) and distribution of crack within 1,000 feet of a daycare center, and Woodard with distribution of 50 grams or more of crack, and possession with intent to distribute 28 grams or more of crack.

In a separate nine count indictment, Shawn Lyons and Larry McDaniel were charged with various drug-related offenses, including conspiracy to distribute five grams or more of cocaine base (“crack”), three ¹An Indictment or Information is an accusation. A defendant is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty.
